NOVA SCOTIA—ABSTRACT OF COLLECTION LAWS, &c.

AFFIDAVITS—For use in respective Courts when taken outside the Province may be sworn before: (a) A Commissioner authorized by the laws of Nova Scotia to take such affidavits; (b) A Notary Public who shall certify under his hand and official seal; (c) A Judge of any Court of Record in any colony of Great Britain or in any foreign country; (d) The Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town corporate in Great Britain or Ireland, or any colony, or any foreign country certified under the common seal of such City or Town corporate, or (e) A Consul or Consular agent of His Majesty, exercising his functions in any foreign place, or any person acting as such. Similar affidavits sworn to within the Province may be sworn before the Justice entitled to preside in the respective Court, and before Commissioners of the Supreme Court, and in special cases before a Barrister or Justice of the Peace.

ARREST FOR DEBT—Under execution on judgments was abolished by the Acts of Nova Scotia 1894, in the Supreme, County, Probate, City, Civil, Stipendiary Magistrates, Justice, or Justices' Courts of the Province, but provision was thereby made for the examination of debtors against whom execution had issued, by commissioners who have power to commit a debtor to prison for a term not exceeding 12 months in case of fraudulent contraction of debt, or fraudulent disposition of property or wilful and malicious tort. Capias can issue in the first instance for the arrest of persons about to leave the jurisdiction, and also in the first instance in the Supreme Court in amounts of $20 and upwards, in the County Court in debt of $20 to $800 and in damages up to $400, and in Magistrates' Courts from $4 to $80.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments of property are allowable only (1) in suits against absent or absconding debtors. (2) in suits against foreign companies doing business within the Province.

BANKRUPTCY.—(See Canadian Bankruptcy Act in final pages of Reference Book.)

BILLS OF SALE OR CHATTEL MORTGAGES—Are governed by the provisions of Chapter 11 of the Acts of 1918 and must be filed and renewal statement also filed every 3 years to make them operative against third parties, in the office of the Registrar of Deeds for the registration district in which the grantor, if a resident of Nova Scotia, resides at the time of the execution thereof, or if he is not a resident of Nova Scotia then in the Registry of Deeds for the district where the goods are at the time of the execution of the Bill of Sale, and must be accompanied by an affidavit of bona fides, etc., in the statutory form. The same applies also to chattel mortgages and bills of sale to cover future acquired property.

CLAIMS AGAINST ETATES OF DECEASED PERSONS—Should be proved by affidavit which shall be sworn by the claimant, or in his absence from the Province by his agent, before the Registrar of Probate, a Commissioner, or a Justice of the Peace. Such claims should be presented within one year from the date of the granting of letters of probate or administration, and if it is desired to prevent the operation of the Statute of Limitations, the creditor should file a copy of his claim with the Registrar of the Probate Court by which such letters of probate or administration were granted.

COMMISSIONS TO TAKE TESTIMONY.—Orders to take evidence by commission may be obtained from any of our courts, except of those of justices of the peace and stipendiary magistrates.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—Every hiring, lease, bailment or bargain for the sale of personal chattels accompanied by an immediate delivery and followed by an actual and continued change of possession where the property in the personal chattels or in the case of a bargain for sale that a lien for the price or any part of it shall remain in the person letting to hire, the lessor, bailor, or bargainor until payment in full, shall be in writing showing the terms of the agreement and be signed by the person to whom such personal chattels are hired the lessee, bailee, bargainee or his agent thereunto duly authorized in writing and shall have written or printed therein the post office address of the person letting to hire, lessor, bailor, or bargainor, and within ten days after delivery of such chattels a true copy of such instrument in writing must be filed in the registry of deeds for the registration district in which the person to whom such personal chattels are hired, the lessee, bailee or bargainee resides at the time of the execution thereof, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit of bona fides. If a copy of said instrument is not so filed within the time mentioned, the person letting to hire, lessor, bailor or bargainor is not protected against judgment creditors, purchasers and mortgagees of the person to whom such personal chattels are hired of the lessee, of the bailee, or the bargainee. The provisions of the act extend to contracts made outside the Province of Nova Scotia.

CONTRACTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.—Married women are liable to the extent of their separate estate for all contracts. They are liable for antenuptial debts to the extent of their estate. Unless a married woman before engaging in trade files her husband's consent under the provisions of Section 18 of Chap. 112, R. S., 1900, all her property employed in such trade may be taken in execution against her husband.

DEEDS AND MORTGAGES—When executed in the Province must be witnessed by one witness at least. Before the instrument can be recorded the witness must make oath that the grantor signed the same in his presence, or the parties executing must acknowledge under oath the execution thereof. This oath can be administered by a justice of the peace, a notary public, the registrar of deeds for the district where the land lies, a barrister of the Supreme Court, or a judge thereof. Deeds and mortgages may be proved out of the Province, as well in foreign countries as in the British Dominions, by the oath of a subscribing witness, to be administered by commissioner appointed to take affidavits out of the Province, by a judge of any court of record, a mayor or recorder of any city, or a notary public, who shall certify to the attestation. If the proof is to be made in a foreign country, any public minister, ambassador, consul or vice-consul from the Court of Great Britain may administer such oath. To make deeds, mortgages, grants, attachments or judgments effective against lands they must be recorded in the registry of deeds for the district wherein the lands lie, or they will be void against purchasers for value and without notice who shall first record their instruments. Deeds and mortgages of married women must comply with the provisions of Chap. 113 of the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1900.

EXECUTION.—Execution upon a judgment for payment of money or costs can issue immediately after judgment, unless expressly otherwise ordered by the court or judge. Execution can only be stayed by order of the court upon grounds satisfactory to the court. Writ of execution is good in Supreme and County Courts for one year if not carried out, and it may be renewed at expiration of the year, or a new execution issued.

EXEMPTIONS.—The necessary wearing apparel, beds, bedding and bedsteads of debtor and his family, stove and pipe therefor, crane and appendages, pair andirons, set cooking utensils, pair tongs, six knives, six forks, six plates, six saucers, one shovel, one table, six chairs, one milk jug, one tea pot, six spoons, one spinning wheel, sewing machine, one weaving loom, if in ordinary domestic use, ten volumes of religious books, one water bucket, axe, saw, such fishing nets as are in common use, not exceeding in value $20, all necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour and vegetables for family use, enough for thirty days' consumption and not exceeding in value $40, cow, two sheep, one hog, and hay and food therefor for thirty days, tools and implements of or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation to the value of $30. JUDGMENTS.—Judgments may be obtained during the vacation of court when suits undefended, as well as at other times. They can be obtained in ten days after service when the defendant resides in any part of Nova Scotia. When the defendant resides out of the Province judgment may be entered on the expiration of the time allowed defendant to appear, which is limited by the court. Judgments are good for twenty years from their date.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.—Supreme Court has jurisdiction downwards to $20, in all matters of contract. County Court has jurisdiction in all matters of contract and tort where the amount claimed is not less than $20 nor more than $800 in contracts and $400 in tort. Limited Partnerships.—Provision is also made by the laws of Nova Scotia for the formation of limited partnerships for the transaction of business, with the exception of a banking or insurance business. Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons or general partners, who shall have the full usual responsibility of general partners and of one or more partners who shall contribute in actual cash payment a specific sum as capital, called special partners, and such special partners shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by them to the capital except in certain cases specifically provided for. Such certificate must be proved and filed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds for the registration district where the principal place of business of the partnership is situate. The certificate must also be verified under oath, which affidavit of verification must be filed at the same time in the Registry of Deeds and publication of the terms of such parntership must be made in the Royal Gazette and one other newspaper published in Halifax and by hand bills posted up in the places in which the business of the partnership is carried on.

one duly deputed in his presence to make the signature at the foot of the will. The due execution thereof must be acknowledged in the presence of two or more witnesses who, in the presence of testator and of each other, subscribe the instrument as witnesses.
